FOR THE COMPANY WHO WISHES TO EXPLORE THE BUSINESS LEGACY OF THE LINKSLAND

Why does golf lift so high the human spirit?

This very question has been the subject of many a book and single-malt fueled fire side debate. Perhaps it's the oh so rare opportunity to escape the world of e-mails, conference calls and stroll Mother Nature's rolling hillocks, resplendent in lavender and golden blooming gorse. Or simply, a base of much needed mental yoga.

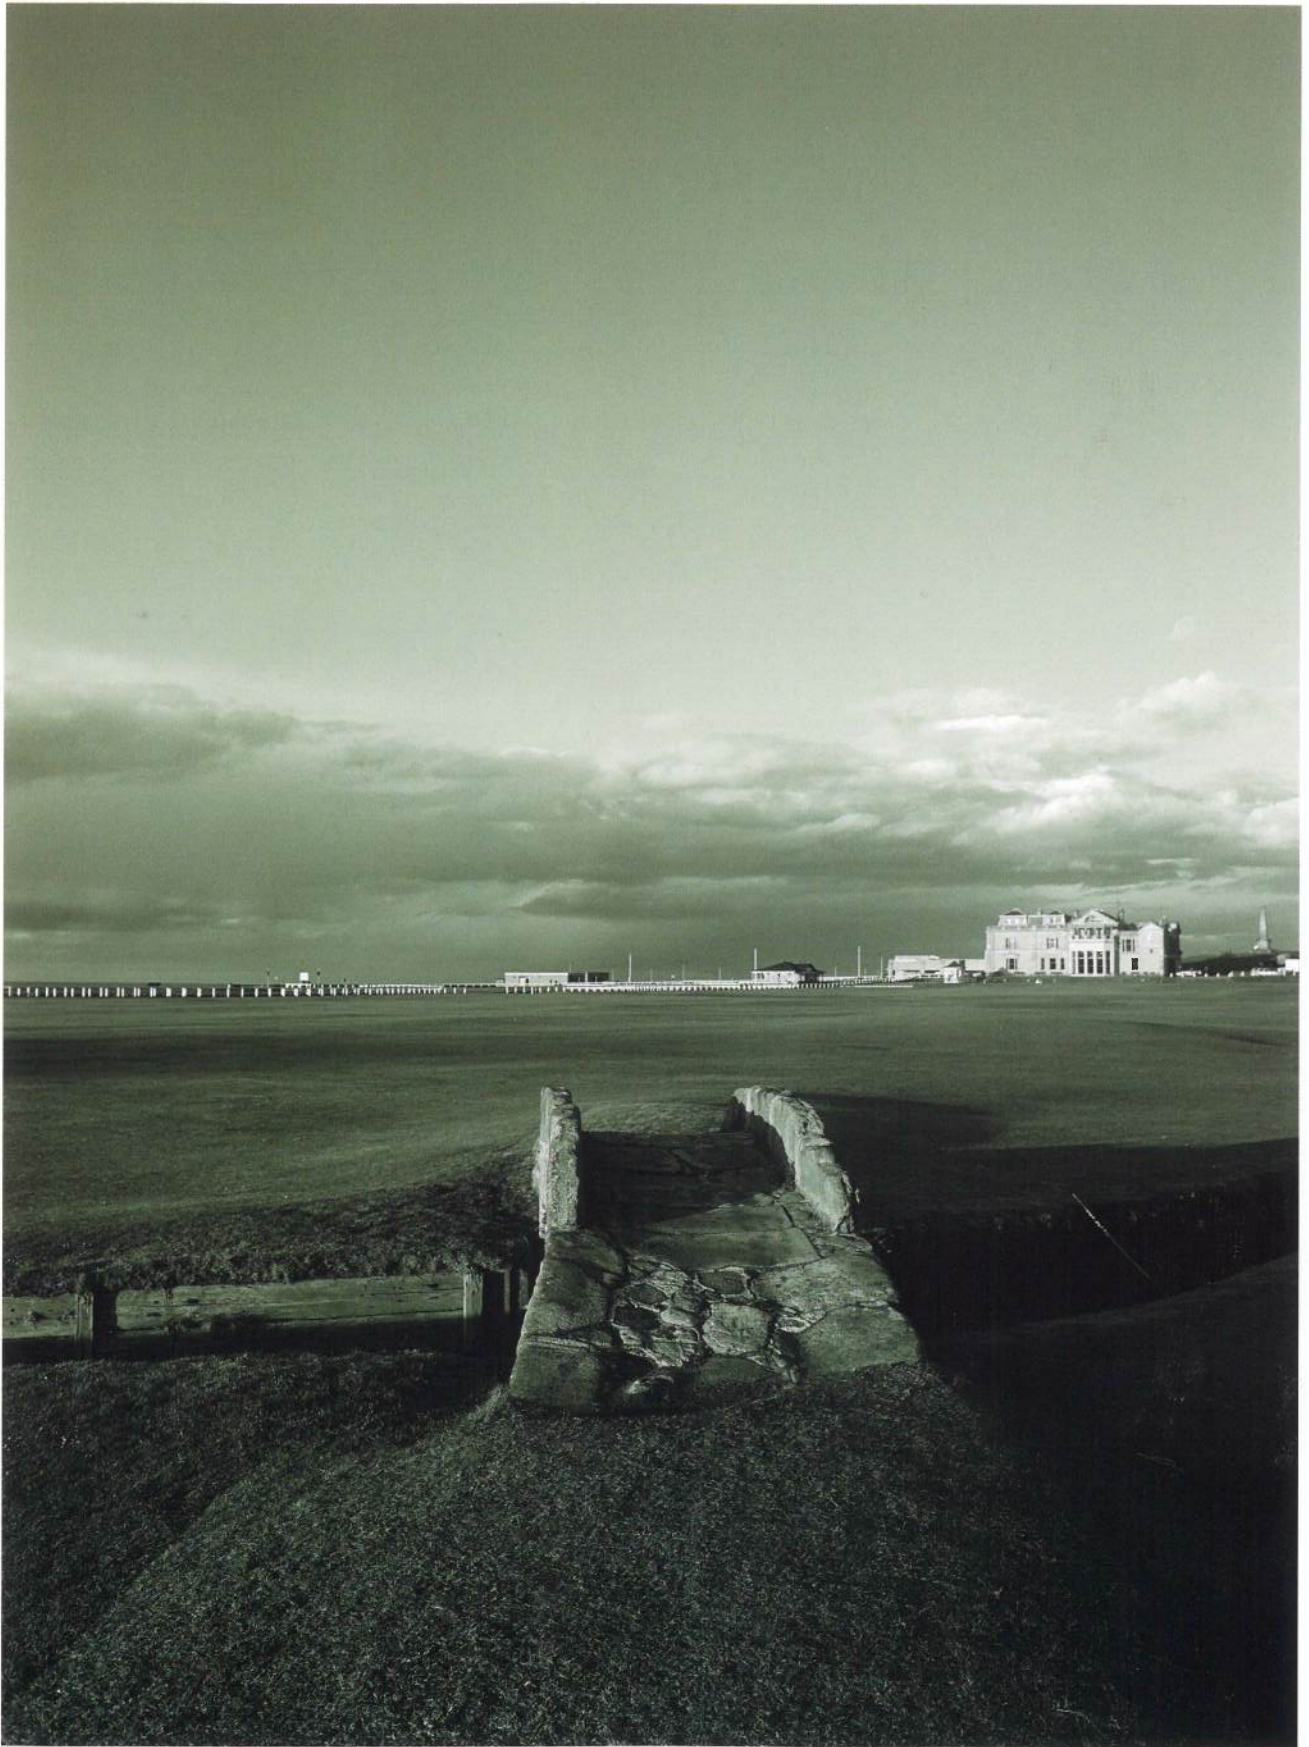

This mystical, harmonious, morale boosting atmosphere can be experienced by you, your work colleagues and clients.

Montgomery Golf Ltd. specialise in the arrangement of unique individual and corporate golf events. Our access to leading golf historians, legendary characters and restricted events, excites even us.

For example: the US and British Opens, the Ryder and Dunhill Cups, the Masters at Augusta National and many of the world's finest courses such as Gleneagles in Scotland, Mount Juliet in Ireland, the Four Seasons Resort in Hawaii and the PGA National Resort in Florida, are just the start.

Companies and organisations seeking to boost performance levels are increasingly utilising our services in improving the workplace. Our services understand that you wish to enjoy the company of your guests, (clients, potential clients, employees or friends) while having an individual experience, through your friendship and generosity. We have considerable experience in providing harmonious atmospheres, which results in improved means of communication between company personnel and clients.

From the planning to organisation and implementation, Montgomery Golf's dedication to the pursuit of excellence is your guarantee of the finest quality.

The Silver Club

Gentlemen Golfers of Edinburgh, who petitioned Edinburgh Town Council for the gift of a Silver Club in 1744. This was duly granted on condition that written rules of play were formulated and recorded. The 'Thirteenth Articles', as they have come to be known, are noted down in the Club's minute book on 7th March of that year and are thus the world's first written rules of golf, predating Saint Andrews (R & A) rules by ten years.

The direct descendants of The Gentlemen Golfers of Edinburgh are The Honorable Company of Edinburgh Golfers who play their golf at Muirfield Golf Course.
